

STAY COOL

Work
It Out

GIVE RESPECT

GET IT DONE

BE CONFIDENT

Dr. Brad Schwall

4525 Lemmon Avenue

Suite 200

Dallas, Texas 75219

214.683.6537

DrBrad@coolkidschannel.com

www.coolkidschannel.com

Cool Kids Resources Included for 2010-2011

18 Cool Kids Lessons

- “Cool Kids TV” videos.
- Lesson Plans that include how to introduce the lessons’ videos and questions for discussion.
- Role-play starters.
- Handouts.
- Drawing activities.

The 18 Cool Kids lessons cover the following topics:

- Setting Goals – College and Career Awareness
- Respecting Peers
- Getting Work Done
- Taking Tests
- Following Directions
- Preventing Substance Abuse
- Making Good Choices
- Being Confident
- Showing Care
- Being Honest
- Building Strong Families
- Dealing with Sadness
- Listening
- Dealing with Feeling Mad
- Dealing with Disagreements
- Dealing with Bullying
- Respecting Differences
- An Introduction to the “Cool Rules”

Cool Kids “Click” – Online Game that Can Be Used as a Lesson

Cool Kids subscribers will have access to five online games that counselors or teachers may use with entire classes using computers connected to projectors or interactive white boards. Each game will cover specific topics such as respect, responsibility, skills for school, character, substance abuse awareness, and college and career awareness and will include video vignettes of students from lower elementary to middle school showing character and using the “Cool Rules.” These games may be used as stand-alone lessons or as a part of other lessons.

The Cool Kids “Coolcast” – Morning Announcements Recordings and Scripts

The “Coolcasts” will include scripts for students to read for morning announcements via video or audio and recorded announcements. The “Coolcasts” will cover character traits and the “Cool Rules.”

Cool Kids Parenting Talks – Tips and Discussion Questions to Use for Parent Coffees, Lunches, or PTA Meetings

Subscribers will have access to “Cool Kids Parenting Talks” that provide tips and discussion questions to use with parents for parent coffees or lunches, parent meetings, or as a part of PTA meetings. The outlines will support character traits, the Cool Kids lessons, and the “Cool Rules.”