

Mentoring Hour Conversation Starters and Activities

The children we mentor face a wide variety of social and emotional challenges at home, play, and school. Mentors have the perfect opportunity to begin conversations that can help the children they mentor think of ways to face social and emotional challenges with good choices and resilience. Cool Kids provides handouts for mentors to read with their children, “Gab” questions for sharing, and role-playing and drawing activities and lesson resources covering the following topics for the 2009-2010 school-year:

- Respecting Peers
- Getting Work Done
- Being Confident
- Dealing with Feeling Mad
- Dealing with Disagreements
- Showing Care
- Being Honest
- Building Strong Families
- Making Good Choices
- Taking Tests
- Following Directions
- Setting Goals – college and career awareness
- Preventing Substance Abuse
- Dealing with Sadness
- Listening
- Dealing with Bullying
- Respecting Differences
- An Introduction to all of the Cool Rules
